

COMPREHENSIVE CANCER CENTER
UNIVERSITY OF MICHIGAN
HEALTH SYSTEM

The Breast Cancer Summit

Saturday, April 18, 2015, 10am — 3pm

LOCATION: U-M North Campus Research Complex
(near intersection with Huron Parkway)

2800 Plymouth Rd. Building #18, Ann Arbor, MI 48109

FREE PARKING

Breast cancer survivors, caregivers, and members of the general public concerned about breast cancer and risk reduction are welcome to attend. The summit is free and will feature medical experts from the University of Michigan Comprehensive Cancer Center. Topics will include cancer prevention, screening, treatment, research, survivorship, advocacy and genetic risk.

Program Schedule

9:00am – 10:00am	REGISTRATION
10:00am – 12:00pm	How Decisions are Made in Breast Cancer Treatment — Case Discussion
12:00pm – 1:00pm	LUNCH Exhibitor/Resource Tables and "Ask the Experts" stations
1:00pm – 2:45pm	Continuing to Thrive — Moving Forward: Mind, Body and Spirit
2:45pm	CLOSING REMARKS AND RAFFLE PRIZES

Registration is appreciated by April 11.

For more information, and to view the complete program, visit mccancer.org/breastsummit or call 734-998-7071.

Hosted by the University of Michigan Comprehensive Cancer Center Breast Oncology and Community Outreach Programs with support from The Michigan Affiliate of Susan G. Komen, UM School of Public Health, and QVC presents FFANY Shoes on Sale.

